

A word cloud featuring various terms related to agile project management and software development. The words are arranged in a dense, overlapping manner. The colors used include shades of blue, green, yellow, and purple. The sizes of the words vary, with 'sprint' and 'user research' being the largest. The words are oriented horizontally, except for 'agile team' which is written vertically on the right side.

user - centre
sprint
agile work software development iteration agile way backlog agile method product owner user research user test agile delivery agile methodology user need
service design
agile project iterative
agile team