

A word cloud featuring various terms related to agile project management. The words are arranged in a dense, overlapping manner. The colors used include shades of green, blue, yellow, and purple. The sizes of the words vary, with 'user research' and 'service design' being the largest. The words include: agile method, user test, agile principle, agile way of work, user need, agile way, user - centre design, service design, agile project, product owner, agile methodology, agile development, user research, agile project management, iteration, user - centre, software development, sprint, agile delivery, backlog, and development team.