

A word cloud featuring various terms related to agile development and user-centered design. The words are arranged in a dense, overlapping manner, with some words being significantly larger than others. The color palette includes shades of purple, teal, green, and yellow. The words are oriented both horizontally and vertically.

agile team
agile way
sprint
iteration
user test
development team
software development
user need
agile way of work
scrum
agile development
iterative
agile work
agile methodology
user story
user research
backlog
user - centre
agile coach
service design
agile delivery
agile project
product owner
user - centre design